Thank you to everyone who worked on the playground. If you haven’t taken a look at our new refurbished playground, please go and look at what a wonderful paint job the workers at mission’s week did. They were able to paint several items on our playground which makes the area look really nice and thanks to the all the guys who worked on the swing playset. Everyone has done a tremendous job and we appreciate you giving up your time to make the play ground look so good.
